

Ilya Sutskever

Luke Jansen

Video: <https://youtu.be/WtaJFQMx9ck>

Early Life and Education

- Born in the USSR – moved to Israel at 5 years – Toronto at 16 years
- University of Toronto – B.S. Math, M.S., PhD. CS
- Doctoral advisor was Geoffrey Hinton
 - Studied neural nets, looked down on by rest of AI community
- Alex Krizhevsky – Alex Net
 - First time using GPUs to train image recognition
 - Led to huge leap in AI research

Google / OpenAI

- 2013 – 2015: Google Brain
- Helped create the sequence-to-sequence learning algorithm
- Worked on TensorFlow and AlphaGo
- Left Google in 2015 to cofound Open AI
- 2023: Open AI fiasco – Sam Altman and stepping down

Influence / Current Work

- 2024 – Safe Superintelligence
 - Prioritizes developing AI safely, with no pressure from management or commercial interests
 - No products, no research
 - Meta poaches CEO in 2025 after Ilya rejected offer to buy whole company

Sources

- https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ilya_Sutskever
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XR4Zk_HPkig

